

2 in 1
SHOE POLISHES
KEEP YOUR SHOES NEAT - 10¢
The FEDDELEY Co., Ltd., Buffalo, N.Y.

Out Of Town Society

CHILDREN'S

The ingeniously and infinitely gift a lively entertainment of the house were in joyful play Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. M. Creas, Mrs. G. C. Chennault, Mrs. O. V. Vernon, Miss Ruth Creas, held about Mary Jones for inspiration a vivacious shower of perfect appointments.

The Creas home on Broadway was the selected place of entertainment, the blossoms of spring predominating, increasing the charm of the reception suite, when roses were here and there, in vase or bowl being graciously arranged over antiques, while the light-swinged bladders were hanging from the chandeliers and brackets.

The recurring line and houseparty was indeed large, and the number increased that regressed at the table, book that was needed over.

Mrs. R. W. Witherspoon is used to be more than two hundred Speaking of the bride's book, it was a work well set the girls having been exercised by Misses Gertrude Grundy, a close mate of Miss Jones'

In a room above fashioned festooning by employing pink and white roses intermingled in a lattice work of white ribbon was stationed the punch bowl, and here Mrs. Ruth and Miss Neil Johnson graciously invited the pleasant nectar that was so much enjoyed by the guests.

After the guests had all assembled and were succumbing all at once a stillness pervaded the atmosphere; the hummer was coming from the flight of stairs, and through the doorway she was shown in a long creation of Georgette crepe with gold lace trimmings. She was dressed in her little nose, Annie Banks who carried a bird's nest of which a pretty blunder was elicited and the following verse as given:

about our friend, Miss Mary Jones, We've heard some pleasant news, so sum us in a blue bird singer — We hope you won't refuse.

The opening into the spacious dining room was then cleared, and a dining scene exposed to view, on the dining table a large nest was made and was filled to overflowing with the many and handsome gifts brought by the friends to show their love for the honored guest. All were very pleasantly spent in dining at these nests.

Mrs. Louie W. Bishop gave a short Wednesday afternoon, May 12, Miss Mary Jones, whose wedding Mr. Ross E. Coffey announced May 17, and Miss Maggie David, whose wedding in Mr. Herbert Tracy took place Saturday evening, which was of unique and elegant appointments. The hour set for entertainment was four to seven, the lawn was used for the seat.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. J. M. Creas and Mrs. G. C. Chennault who assisted them on the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Creas, Mrs. Mary Jones, Miss Maggie David, Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. Ruth Creas, Mrs. Bill Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. Anna Jones, Mrs. Henry Banks, Miss Louie W. Bishop gave a short Wednesday afternoon, May 12, Miss Mary Jones, whose wedding Mr. Ross E. Coffey announced May 17, and Miss Maggie David, whose wedding in Mr. Herbert Tracy took place Saturday evening, which was of unique and elegant appointments. The hour set for entertainment was four to seven, the lawn was used for the seat.

The guests were met at the door by Mrs. J. M. Creas and Mrs. G. C. Chennault who assisted them on the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Creas, Mrs. Mary Jones, Miss Maggie David, Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. Ruth Creas, Mrs. Bill Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson, Mrs. Anna Jones, Mrs. Henry Banks,

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Lane left Saturday for Florida, their home. Mrs. Lane has been operated on at a local sanitarium, but her health is sufficiently improved for her to make the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spikes and daughters, Freda and Anna and Mrs. W. H. Long motored to Dallas Tuesday.

Wednesday evening at half past eight at the home of her father in the southeast part of childhood, occurred the marriage of Miss Jessie Kephart and Mr. Arthur C. Harris. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. McFarland, pastor of the Baptist church in the presence of all the immediate relatives. Refreshments of cream and cake were served immediately following the marriage, after which the newlyweds went to their home in the northwest part of the city, which was in readiness for them, they having taken the home of Mrs. Wiley Blair for the night.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. L. Kirchen, a well known grocer of this city, and is a young woman of splendid attainments. For the past several years she has made her home in Childhood and is quite popular in church and society circles.

The groom is a young man of splendid character and exemplary habits, who has, for more than a year been employed on The Post as head of the mechanical department. He is capable, energetic and faithful in the performance of duty and we congratulate him on winning for his wife such a prize and his bride is known to be.

Saturday evening Miss Morelle Jordan of this city and Mr. John Grigsby of Spanish were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Jordan.

FORD
THE UNIVERSAL CAR
WESTERN MOTOR CO.
114 West Fifth.
Phone 1540

PLAINVIEW.

The Liberty Social Club met Thursday, May 11, with Mrs. R. E. Houston. Twenty-seven were present and a jolly good time was the result of the afternoon.

The hostess served a delicious two-course luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McIntyre, who have been visiting at various points in the southern part of the State, returned home last week. Mrs. McIntyre states that she had the pleasure of attending the Fourth District meeting of the Woman's State Federation, held at Brenham.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the St. Mark's Episcopal Church met Monday afternoon, at the church. The new officers elected at the last meeting were present, and the new president, Mrs. J. G. Wyckoff, presided.

A turkey dinner was planned for next Thursday from six to eight at the home of Mrs. J. C. Anderson.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church met Monday afternoon, at the church, at four o'clock. This being their regular business meeting, plans for the year's work were discussed.

Next Monday will be the mission meeting, and the aid will meet with Mrs. E. B. Hughes at three o'clock.

The girls and lady teachers of Wayland College went to the canyons Saturday on their annual picnic.

The graduating exercises of Wayland College will be held Wednesday morning, May 24, at the college auditorium. Judge Bolin of Matador will deliver the graduating address. Dr. E. E. Gates will preach the commencement sermon, at the Baptist Church, Sunday, May 21st.

Those who will take degrees of the class are: Miller, Addie, Beulah, Lanier, Wimberly, Emma, Pop, Verlin, Roosa, Eliza B. Hopping and Jewell McCall and Robert Roosa.

Lester Hartley was forced to withdraw from the class on account of failing health. He will enter Sammons College for the summer term, where he expects to make up lost time.

Mrs. F. W. Chinkcales was hostess to the Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon, at her home, on South Broadway.

In addition to the club members, Madames Chas. McCormick, Robert Malone and Wallace Setton were present. Mrs. Wallace Setton was high score for the guests and Mrs. E. E. Gates for the club.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Ware and Mrs. Chas. McCormick, served a delicious salad course.

Miss Ruth Tawdry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Towery entertained a few of her friends Sunday. The occasion being her fifteenth birthday.

An elaborate five-course dinner was served to the following: Misses Mae Mae Richards, Gladys Speer, William Wilford, Messrs. Newton Gilkert, William Snel, Lester Atherton and Robert Doubtless.

The color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Pink sweet peas were used in the decorations. The place cards were hand painted.

From three to six o'clock Thursday afternoon Mrs. L. J. Warren entertained the members of the H. F. Club. As the houseguests making claims articles conversation never lagged. Delightful music was a feature of the afternoon's entertainment. The hostess served delicious refreshments, strawberries, angel food cake and punch.

LUBBOCK.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Weiser turned Monday from Austin, San Antonio and other Central Texas points. They had been away about two months.

Those planning to take advantage of the rates to the confederate.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. McFarland, pastor of the Baptist church in the presence of all the immediate relatives. Refreshments of cream and cake were served immediately following the marriage.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. W. L. Kirchen, a well known grocer of this city, and is a young woman of splendid attainments. For the past several years she has made her home in Childhood and is quite popular in church and society circles.

The groom is a young man of splendid character and exemplary habits, who has, for more than a year been employed on The Post as head of the mechanical department. He is capable, energetic and faithful in the performance of duty and we congratulate him on winning for his wife such a prize and his bride is known to be.

Mrs. H. L. Agnew entertained the Agile Needle Club Friday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Long. A two-course luncheon was served. Madames Merrill and Judge Robinson will entertain the club next time.

Mrs. H. L. Agnew entertained the Agile Needle Club Friday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Long. A two-course luncheon was served. Madames Merrill and Judge Robinson will entertain the club next time.

Sunday at 10 a.m. Miss Nella Moore and Mr. R. N. Ready were married at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Cole. Rev. Cole officiated. Only a few of the most intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Ready left immediately for Dallas and other North Texas points. They will be at home to their friends in Lubbock after June 1.

Madames C. A. Rush and John Penny entertained June 24-25 Club Friday afternoon. Madames W. S. Posey and Frank Winn won high score. A salad course was served.

The Twentieth Century Club met at the home of Mrs. E. L. Klett. A business session was held followed by the study hour. The plans for next year's course of study are about completed.

MEMPHIS.

The Bay View Study Club met with Mrs. J. A. Bradford Wednesday afternoon, May 8, with all members except two present.

The study of Holland was taken up, with Mrs. Gates as leader of his story. Mrs. Herold offered a magazine article "Amsterdam Queen of the Zulu Zeen." The wonderful ingenuity that has made it possible for this little country to support a great population was discussed and pronounced one of the wonders of the past century.

The lesson over, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. C. W. Browne, president; Mrs. Priscilla Montgomery, vice-president; Miss Millicent, secretary; Mrs. F. M. Smith, editor and Mary D. Arnold, publicity supervisor.

Mrs. Annie Taylor, of Denison, came in Saturday to visit with her sister, Mrs. C. N. Sasse, of Lubbock.

Ira Killings and Grandmother remained Saturday and Sunday with friends at Hedley.

Mrs. T. H. King, of Little Rock, Arkansas, is visiting in the city in quest of Mrs. Kay Thornton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Clinton and Melton Laird of Estilline were Memphis visitors Tuesday.

Misses Cecilia Piner and Lillian Menefee spent Sunday with friends at Dallas.

J. E. Circuit of Parnell was here Tuesday attending the republians county convention.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moreman of Hedley visited friends near Dallas last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hope visited their farm near Lakeview, Tuesday.

Mrs. B. D. Green and daughter, Mrs. Mr. W. F. Holland and Mrs. E. L. Laird of Estilline were here Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. W. Wilson entertained a number of friends at a six o'clock dinner last Saturday.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marais.

A jolly crew of young people gathered at the following: Misses Ollie and Ida McGill, Mrs. Irene King, Nelson Anthony, Monroe, Power and Peete, Morris, Jim King and Hubbard, Chapman, Jim Morris, Jim Foster, C. C. George, and a number of others.

Misses Cecilia Piner and Lillian Menefee spent Sunday with friends at Dallas.

MARKETS

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY Mo. May 15—Total 100 nominal.

Hogs 500 closing, sow steaks packers top, $9.50, rough hams, $8.50-$9.50, heavy, $9.50-$10.50 mixed and butchers, $9.50-$10.50, pigs, $7.50-$8.50, hams, $10.50-$11.50, receipts, 12,000.

Sheep, none.

FORT WORTH LIVESTOCK

FORT WORTH Texas May 14—Total 500 closing, strong quarters common here today, bulk $9.50-$10.

No, nothing good enough to bid market, steady mostly Mexican stock at $4.50, hams $4.50-$4.75, cows at $4 for the week, best steers cows and heifers 25c lower, bulls and calves steady, steers steers 15c to 20c lower, heifers 25c lower, calves 25c lower, hams and bellies 25c lower, steers 25c lower, hams and bellies 25c lower, calves 25c lower, heifers 25c lower.

Sheep, 100 sheep, clipped wethers at $7.50 for the week. Sheep and lambs 25c higher, goats 25c to the higher.

Beef, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Steers, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Calves, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Bulls, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Hams, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Bellies, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Cheeks, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Hearts, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Intestines, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Knuckle bones, 1000 cattle, mostly fed cattle.

Knuckle bones,